“We are back again for the 9th year and thrilled to welcome even more renowned chefs serving signature dishes and over 200 world class wines,” said Westchester Magazine Publisher Sam Wender. “Tickets to the 2019 events are certain to impress all food and wine connoisseurs and are available now.”

Harrison Wine Vault joins once again as exclusive wine retailer. Family-owned Harrison Wine Vault opened in the fall of 2011 and is a favorite among wine aficionados. This tri-level store features a classroom; a former bank vault turned temperature-controlled fine wine room, and 2,500 square feet of retail space. The store is conveniently located in the town of Harrison directly across from the Metro North train station and steps away from the towns of Rye and Mamaroneck.

“We are thrilled to be back this year,” said Anthony D’Arpino, owner of Harrison Wine Vault. “The selection of wines and caliber of chefs will once again be amazing. We can’t wait!”

Westchester Magazine’s Wine & Food Festival, which draws more than 7,000 people from across the New York Metro area including New York City, Westchester County, Long Island, New Jersey and Connecticut, will feature 100 + top restaurants and a selection of world-class wines.
